This is an exclusive luxury villa of impeccable style and elegant sophistication, idyllically nestled amidst lush greenery on Phuket's most famous golf course, Phuket Country Club. It is ideally located just minutes from Central Festival, Big C, Tesco and 5 minutes from Patong Beach.

Contemporary custom designs, floor-to-ceiling windows, and the finest woods, stainless steel and natural stone create a unique taste and sophistication that stimulates natural light and maximizes spectacular golf course views.

This unique 500 sq. M, built on the principles of ultramodernism, demonstrates impeccable functionality and impressive modern style.

The project is inspired by the works of world renowned Japanese architect Tadao Ando and designed by one of Thailand's leading and most creative architects, ROOF. This villa is designed with function and shape in mind. All service and distribution areas are in the west to provide more privacy and less exposure to sun heat. The east and south sides of the villa are completely open to maximize views of the golf course fairways. The facade of the building is positioned to block out heat, provide more privacy, making the villa more autonomous and private. The villa is permeated with a wooden square shape that connects all the interior spaces. The villa embraces nature in all forms, with a main entrance and garden steps made of grass and the maximum use of wood and polished concrete. The project consists of villas ideally located in the heart of a golf course in central Phuket. This is an ideal destination for golf fans. The project features private villas with a private pool. Each villa is unique in its design. The territory has a video surveillance system, a restaurant, parking.
