Alpha Villa offers a luxurious, comfortable, relaxing holiday on the paradise island of Koh Samui, Thailand. This hill side property has both sunrise and sunset views, and from the moment you enter you are immersed in the incredible sights of the surrounding hills and coastline.

The spacious double master bedroom connects to the pool terrace and therefore benefits from breath-taking views. This attractive room also boasts an indoor and an outdoor bathroom en-suite, the latter with an indulgent tub and rain shower. A double and a twin guest room share a bathroom, making them ideal for a family, while a separate, second master suite features its own spacious bathroom with glass walled rain shower and skylight. The main living, dining and kitchen area opens directly into the garden; the entire space drawing in the scenery and ocean breezes. This level also boasts a huge AV room that almost spans the length of the villa, complete with a home theatre system, large sofa and scatter cushions to relax on.

This villa particularly appeals to families or groups of friends, as it offers plenty of options to combine social time with more private moments. A carefully considered design means guests can choose to dine al fresco on the pool terrace or in indoor air- conditioned comfort, without ever losing sight of the spectacular tropical surroundings.
