Laguna Park 2 is Phuket's newest residential enclave, surrounded by lush tropical greenery and an atmosphere of peace and tranquility. It is located in Laguna Phuket, an award-winning resort complex of first-class hotels, luxury spas, residential properties, and a golf course. The new complex is located near the pristine beach of Bang Tao - a three-kilometer beach on the west coast of Phuket.

The project is a 20-minute drive from Phuket International Airport and a short drive from the island's shopping malls, world-class private hospitals, and international schools.

With relative affordability, world-class amenities, and a variety of lifestyle options compared to many densely populated urban areas, Laguna Phuket has established itself as one of the most popular places in Southeast Asia for permanent or temporary residence.
