The entire project is executed in the same style, the typical layout of the villa is an L-shaped main building, which houses a living room, a kitchen, several separate bedrooms with their own bathrooms and a maid's room. In a separate pavilion there is a guest bedroom with a bathroom. In the center is a large swimming pool with jacuzzi. bar and covered gazebo for relaxation. Each villa has its own covered parking. The villas are fenced off from each other and are completely private. The project is literally surrounded by tropical greenery and flowers.
